A condition of the Stomach produced by inactivity of the Liver, when the food is not properly digested, and in which conditions the sufferer is liable to become the victim of nearly every disease that human flesh is heir tochills, fevers and general prostration. It is positively cured if you take HEPATINE

Sick & Nervous HEADACHE?

It was at one time supposed that the seat of the brain was in the stomach. Certain it is a wonderful sympathy exists between the two, and what effects one has an immediate effect on the other. So it is that a disordered stomach invariably is followed by a sympathetic action of the brain, and headaches all arise from this cause. Headaches are easily cured if you will take

This unrivaled preparation has per-ormed some of the most astonishing cures that are recorded in the annals of history. Patients suffering for years from the various diseases of the Lungs, after trying different remedies, spending thousands of dollars in traveling and doctoring, have, by the use of a few bottles, entirely recovered their health.

ALFRED CUSHING,

123 West Thirty-first Street.

Boston, January 11, 1874. This certifies that I have recommended the use of Dr. Tutt's Expectorant for diseases of the luggs for the past two years, and to my knowledge many bottles have been used by my patients with the hap-plest results. In two cases where it was thought confirmed consumption had taken place the Expectorant effected a cure. , R. H. SPRAGUE, M.D.

Ayer's Ague Cure,

For Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fover, Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical or Bilious Fever, &c., and indeed all the affections which arise from malari-ous, marsh, or miasmatic poisons.

scientific skill from vegetable ingredients, which rarely fails to cure the severest cases of Chills and Fever and the concomitant disorders. Such ar remedy the necessities of the people in malarious districts demand.
over any other medicine yet discovered for the cure of Intermittents is, that it contains no quinine or mineral, and those who take it are free from darger of a six in the second seco from danger of quinism or any injurious effects. and are as healthy after using it as before. It has been extensively employed during the last thirty years in the treatment of these distressing disorders, and so unvarying has been its success that thus gained the reputation of being infilit has gained the reputation of being ded to the safely recommended to the Fever and as a sure remedy and specific for the Fever and Agne of the West, and the Chills and Fever of the South. It counteracts the miasmatic poison in the blood, and frees the system from its influ-ence, so that lever and ague, shakes or chills, ence broken up by it, do not return until tho disease is again contracted.

The great variety of disorders which arise from the irritation of this poison, such as Neuralgia, their matter of this poison, such as Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Headache, Elindness, Toothache, Earache, Catarrh, Asthma, Palpitation, Spienic Affections, Hysterics, Pain in the Bowels, Colle, Paralysis, and derange of the Stomach, all of which become intermittent or periodical, have no speedier remedy than AVER'S AGUE CURE, which cures them all alike. and protects the system from future attack. As a preventive, it is of immense service in those communities where Fever and Ague prevails, as it stays the development of the disease if taken on the first approach of the premonitory symptoms. Travellers and temporary residents are thus enabled to defy these disorders, and few will ever suffer if they avail themselves of the protection this remedy affords.

For Liver Complaints, arising from torpidity, it is an excellent remedy; it stimulates this organ into healthy activity, and produces many remarkable cures where other medicines fail. Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co.,

[FOR THE ORANGEBURG TIMES.] The Tear.

On beads of sorrow, the moonbeam slept, And chilly was the midnight gloom, When by the damp grave, Ellen, wept, Sweet maid, it was her Lindor's tomb.

A warm tear gush'd, the wintry air, Congeal'd it as it flow'd away, All night it lay an ice drop there, it morn, it glitter'd in the say.

An angle, wond'ring from her tomb, Who, saw this bright, this frozen gem, To dew eyed, pity brought the tear, And hung it on her diadem.
